Gospel: JOHN 6:60-69

Simon Peter confesses his faith that Jesus alone has the words of the eternal life.

Background on the Gospel Reading

For our Gospel it is the conclusion of the "Bread of Life discourse" which we have heard proclaimed in our liturgy over the past few weeks, Jesus explain that He is the Bread of Life, given so that those who believe may have eternal life. This follows the miracle in which Jesus fed more than five thousand people with five barley loaves and two fish. As Jesus has been teaching these things, a murmuring crowd unable to accept and the crowd has dwindled in number.

Today's Gospel records Jesus' disciples struggled with Jesus' teaching, also cannot accept Jesus' words. Jesus knew about their difficulty and responds by acknowledging their unbelief and by reiterating that only those chosen by the Father will follow Jesus to the end. And it is to these Twelve that Jesus now turns His attention.

Simon Peter's response to Jesus' question as to whether those closest to Him will also leave, reminds us of the reports of Peter's confession of faith Jesus is the one from God in whom they have found the path to eternal life.

This conclusion of the Bread of Life discourse focuses on personal faith in the life of Christian discipleship. God's grace invites us to be Jesus' disciples, but each person must respond to the grace of God and confess as his or her own the belief that Jesus is the one from God. This faith then commits us to the path of life, leading us to eternal life.
