Blessed are you who are poor, for the kingdom of God is yours. Luke 6:20

First Reading: Jeremiah 17:5-8

Put trust and hope in the Lord, not in human beings.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:12,16-20

Our hope for resurrection is sure because Christ has been raised from the dead.

Gospel: Luke 6:17,20-26

Jesus teaches the crowd the way to happiness.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Today's Gospel offers a contrast to many of the messages we hear in our society today. If we were to accept uncritically the "get ahead" messages of our culture, we would think that happiness means having money, being successful, and having many possessions. In this way, we are not unlike the people who heard Jesus teach on the day that he taught the Beatitudes. They too associated happiness with possessions and success. The report of the Beatitudes in Luke's Gospel, however, takes things one step further. Not only will we not find happiness through the "get ahead" messages of the world, but relying upon these messages will cause us harm. The warnings spoken are particularly challenging because they suggest that our way of life must change if we are to gain the lasting happiness of eternal life.

Talk together as a family about what society tells us makes a person successful. Make a list of the traits that you associate with a successful person. Then read together today's Gospel, Luke 6:17,20-26. Reflect on Jesus' description of blessedness in the Kingdom of God. Then consider the warnings. Why are these surprising and challenging? What, then, is the measure of success in the Kingdom of God? Together write prayers of petition based on your discussion. Pray these prayers together, asking God to help your family seek the blessings of the Kingdom of God.

History may be described as an accumulation of stories about how people respond to challenging circumstances and events. We as a faith community have been living through history as we continue to respond to the realities and restrictions of the COVID-19 pandemic. We certainly have many stories, some of which are recorded in the following pages of the 2021 Annual Parish Financial Report.

Throughout much of the year, I have been amazed by how the parishioners of Saint Bartholomew have been able to adapt and adjust to the challenges of the pandemic.

Two operative words during this time period are sustaining and creating. In reading and reviewing this report, I am struck with the many ways the parish has pivoted in sustaining our programs and creating new ones through spirituality and charity works.

How blessed we are — and how grateful I am. And the successes of all our parish ministries are revealed in our strong stewardship resulting in a healthy financial balance. On behalf of all of our ministerial teams allow me to say that we are very grateful for your generosity.

Turning to some of the numbers found this year's financial report, you will see further evidence of our parish's way of sustaining and creating ways to continue to celebrate the Sacraments as well as our parish sacramental preparation programs.

In our Parish Financial Report, you will find the comparative financial report of 2020 and 2021 and it was evident that due to COVID 19 closures a decrease in our parish revenues approximately by 5%.

It is evident the impact of the pandemic that struck the world at the first quarter of 2020 and the months of closure of the parishes for celebration of the Sacraments. Looking back I realized that I was only here at Saint Bartholomew for 6 months as your pastor when I faced the challenges the COVID19 pandemic. I thank you all for your generous spiritual and financial support to the parish despite of the trials that came upon us during these past years.

It is worthy to mention that our parish community is looking forward to celebrate it's 50 years, and of course we continue to make progress in our parish hall project. Let us all leave it into hands of God who never fails to provide for us.

Finally, let me reiterate that we are going through a pandemic of historic proportions but as we do so, all of us are quite engaged in sustaining our parish programs, creating meaningful new ones through which we truly strive to proclaim the Gospel of Jesus the Christ with our lives as a person and as a parish community for the greater glory of God.

I would like to thank Ms. Marichu Alo, Dennis Marcelino and the Parish Finance Council in preparing our 2021 financial report.
