First Reading: 1 Samuel 26:2, 7-9,12-13,22-23

David does not kill Saul.

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 15:45-49

As we bear the image of Adam, so we will bear the image of the one from heaven.

Gospel: Luke 6:27-38

Jesus teaches His disciples to be merciful as God is merciful.

FAMILY CONNECTION

It is easy to choose to be with others when they are acting politely and respectfully. But children do not always act this way, especially with other family members. We can probably all recall a family meal in which such behavior was not observed. Yet we probably chose to sit through the meal anyway. We regularly give our children second chances—and often third and fourth chances—hoping that our generosity will be rewarded. That is how God acts with us. The ethic that Jesus describes seems like an impossible task: to give when asked and to do good to those who hate us. Yet family life is filled with opportunities to act generously and to love without measure. This is what we parents try to do every day. This is what we ask our children to learn. We are reminded that when we love generously and gratuitously, we love as God loves us. This is the meaning of mercy.

As you gather as a family, identify some things that family members are expected to do each day

(prepare meals, go to school or work; complete homework assignments, complete household chores, behave appropriately at school, at work and at home and so on). Discuss whether it is easy to live up to these expectations. Why or why not? Then discuss the meaning of the phrase “go the extra mile” and what it would mean to go the extra mile in the expectations you identified. Introduce today's Gospel: In today's Gospel reading, Jesus describes how we are to act toward one another. What he says may sound like what we mean by the phrase “going the extra mile.” Read aloud today's Gospel, Luke 6:27-38. Discuss whether the actions Jesus describes are easy and consider why we might act in these ways if they seem difficult. Observe that today's Gospel challenges us to make choices based on God's standard; God loves us all the time by going the extra mile for us. During a time of quiet reflection, invite each family member to choose an action for the week in which he or she will go the “extra mile” for the family. Conclude in prayer by praying together St. Ignatius's Prayer for Generosity.

*Eternal Word, only begotten Son of God,
Teach me true generosity.
Teach me to serve you as you deserve.
To give without counting the cost,
To fight heedless of wounds,
To labor without seeking rest,
To sacrifice myself without thought of any reward
Save the knowledge that I have done your will.
Amen.*

BURNING THIS WEEK:

TABERNACLE CANDLES:

- HEALING & SPEEDY RECOVERY OF EMERITA LA CHICA

Starting Thursday,
February 17, 2022

- Masks must still be worn indoors
- Recording contact tracing information is still a best practice, but it is no longer required by the provincial government nor the local public health agencies in the archdiocese
- Congregational singing can resume. Please continue to maintain three metres of physical distancing between unmasked choir members/cantors and anyone else
- Parishes can resume offertory collections in the pews

- Our Archdiocesan hospital priest chaplains provide sacramental care as well as pastoral care, spiritual guidance and prayers at the bedside.
- Despite restrictions in some hospitals, priest chaplains continue to have access to hospitals.
- Given the current restrictions, many hospitals are not yet allowing the priest chaplains to make non-urgent visits using the list of registered Catholic patients. If a patient desires to see a priest, please ask the patient or family member to speak to the patient's nurse to make a request.
- Gently remind parishioners' not to not wait for the last minute to request the attendance of a priest.
- Given the large turnover of staff in the hospitals, if a patient or family is incorrectly informed that a priest is available please have them contact the hospital's Spiritual Care Department.

Lord, help us to be thankful for one another. Help my children to be thankful for each other, for our family to be grateful for each member and to pray one another continually. Our gratitude for one another will bind us together as a family, and our prayers for each other will further unify us in gratitude and love.
