First Reading: Acts of the Apostles 14:21-27

Paul and Barnabas proclaim the good news in many places.

Second Reading: Revelation 21:1-5a

John describes his vision of a new heaven and a new earth.

Gospel: John 13:31-33a,34-35

Jesus gives His disciples a new commandment: love one another.

FAMILY CONNECTION

Is love the first word your family members use to describe their interactions? Love is difficult. Jesus' sacrifice for us is an example of this. Yet because of love, the glory of God is fully revealed in Jesus. God's glory is revealed in us when we act as the Body of Christ, as individuals and as a community. In the love we have for one another—difficult, challenging, sacrificial love—we find Jesus.

Choose one or two occasions when your family was together during the week. Describe the family's interactions from an outsider's perspective. When is it less difficult to show love to family members? When is it more difficult? When love is difficult, what do we do?

Jesus didn't just tell us to love one another. He showed us how to love one another. In what ways did Jesus show us how to love? (in his acts of healing and forgiving; at the Last Supper as he washed his disciples' feet; in the gift of the Eucharist; through his death on the Cross.)

CONFIRMATION

Be Sealed With the Gift of Holy Spirit

Spirit of Life

Bring your hope and happiness
into the lives of young people.

Guide them as they search for meaning and purpose in their lives.

Take special care of those who struggle with issues of self-worth, rejection, and despair.

Safeguard them from danger,
and bring peace to their minds and hearts.

May your grace enfold all young people of the world and draw them closer to you.

Amen.

As the end of the Religious Education year has just happened, I want to extend my sincere thanks and appreciation to all who made our Confirmation program such a successful and fruitful ministry for our children in the parish.

To the parents, congratulations and thank you for your support of our sacramental preparation program.

Thank you one-and-all especially Sheilah, Joanne, Desiree and Prabudda who serve Christ in our program and parish!

Fr. Fernan
