FAMILY CONNECTION

Names have special meanings. In our families, some people are named after parents or other relatives and ancestors. Sometimes peoples' names are symbolic, suggesting something unique about the person or recalling an event or experience related to that person's birth.

In this Sunday's Gospel, we learn that Elizabeth gives her son the name John, which means "God has been gracious." This name sets John apart in a special way: it was normally the father's responsibility to name a child, and the name was usually a family name. The unusual nature of John's naming suggests to everyone that this is a special child.

Spend some time as a family focusing on one another's names as well as on the names of other relatives. Point out the significance of each name and how the naming took place.

Read aloud Luke 1:57-66, 80. Review the parts of the story that describe how John received his name. Talk about how important names are and how we are all called to honor the name of God. Pray together the Sign of the Cross, emphasizing how we honor God's name and promise to live our lives in God's name.

FROM THE PASTOR'S

TO ALL STUDENTS

Allow me to first of all congratulate each one of you. My congratulations extends too to your parents, your teacher and the whole faculty staff who have shared their precious time, amazing talents and sacrificial love in all that they do to support you all to reach your goal at this point of your life.

Let the love of God always be your guide. This is what you could be most proud of. He is the source of wisdom. The knowledge we, your priest, your teachers, your parents have imparted to you is but a proof that God cares for you and that He loves you for He has sent us to be His instruments in sharing His wisdom and life to you. Always recognize His love for you then. He'll be there for you wherever you are, whatever you do, whenever you need Him. Pray and be thankful always. If you ever get lost, and I hope you don't, try pause, look up and look back and you will find the light of God's love. He's there to guide you and strengthen you once again.

Please join me in thanking Our Loving God for the many graces He always bestows upon our school family. May we continue to seek the powerful intercession of our Patron, St. Bartholomew.

Congratulations to all of you again and all the best.

Fr. Fernan Serrano
