First Reading: Malachi 3:19-20

The day of justice is coming, says the Lord.

Second Reading: 2 Thessalonians 3:7-12

Paul urges the community to follow his example and to earn their keep.

Gospel: Luke 21:5-19

Jesus predicts the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem and warns His followers that persecution will come before the end time.

FAMILY CONNECTION:

Children, while innocently naïve about most world events, are also profoundly sensitive to the concerns felt by adults. We can help children interpret adult concerns by sharing information about current events in appropriate ways. We can also put these concerns in the light of God's kingdom and the assurance of God's care for us.

Discuss with your children one or more current events or a situation in your family which shows difficulties that may challenge our trust in a God who cares for us. Then read together today's Gospel, Luke 21:5-19. Notice how Jesus said that even when his disciples are persecuted, God would be with them.

Together with your children, talk about ways in which God might bring good out of the difficult events you discussed. Talk together about some actions you might take as a family to make better the situations you discussed.

Conclude by praying for the needs of the people involved in the events you named. In prayer, place each of these difficult situations into God's hands.

At this time of great need may the Lord bless us
and keep us,
may the Lord shed
His light upon us
and give us His peace.
