Inside the Divine Pattern
Thoughts on Heaven & Earth

First Reading: EZEKIEL 34:11-12,15-17

God Himself will shepherd the people of Israel.

Second Reading: CORINTHIANS 15:20-26,28

Because Christ has been raised from the dead, all those who have died will also be raised.

Gospel: MATTHEW 25:31-46

Jesus teaches that when the Son of Man comes in glory, He will judge the nations, separating the sheep from the goats.

FAMILY CONNECTION:

In today's Gospel, Jesus teaches us that we will be judged on only one thing: the acts of mercy we have shown to the least among us. Jesus identifies with the least ones; thus we serve Jesus whenever we serve one of the least ones. The Church calls the actions that Jesus described in today's Gospel the Corporal Works of Mercy. These works are to feed the hungry, to clothe the naked, to bury the dead, to shelter the homeless, to visit the sick and imprisoned, and to give alms to the poor. In these actions we show God's compassion and mercy to those in need.

As you gather as a family, recall the list of the Corporal Works of Mercy. Talk about some concrete examples of how your family might do these actions in your community and then discuss why it is important that we do these things. Read Matthew 25:31-46. Ask: Why does

Jesus say we ought to do these works of mercy? (Because whenever we show mercy to another person, we show mercy to Jesus Himself). Choose one Corporal Work of Mercy that your family will act upon this week. Pray together that your family will see and serve Jesus in the least ones among us. Pray the Lord's Prayer or an Act of Love.
