FEBRUARY 15, 2026

SIXTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FIRST READING: SIRACH 15:15-20

The eyes of God see all He has made.

SECOND READING: 1 CORINTHIANS 2:6-10

God has revealed this wisdom to us through the Spirit.

GOSPEL: MATTHEW 5:17-37

I have not come to abolish the law and the prophets but to fulfill them.

FAMILY CONNECTION:

Families have rules. Without rules, family life would be chaos. As a family, brainstorm a list of rules that you are all called to follow in your home in order for you all to get along together. Think about rules for play time, rules for eating, rules for how to speak to one another, rules for going out with friends, and so on. Emphasize that families follow rules as a way of showing love and respect for one another. Explain that in this Sunday's Gospel, Jesus talks about following the Law. Say: God's Law of love can be thought of as rules that we are to follow in order to show our love and respect for one another. Read aloud this Sunday's Gospel, Matthew 5:17-37. Talk specifically with one another about how anger is to be dealt with in your family. Conclude by praying for the grace to overcome anger and to show respect for one another as a family by following God's Law of love.

From the Pastor's Desk

Prayerful and grace filled greetings to all members of our parish family and to their family in particular.

Family Day is more than just a long weekend—it's a beautiful reminder of the gift of family, in all its forms. Whether it's our parents and siblings, our extended relatives, or the friends who have become like family, this day gives us an opportunity to celebrate the love and connection that shape our lives.

As Catholics, we recognize that family is a reflection of God's love. We have to meditate the persons of the Holy Family—Jesus, Mary, and Joseph that serves as a model of faith, devotion, and support. But family isn't always defined by blood. Many of us find deep bonds in our chosen families, the people who walk beside us in life's journey. No matter what our families look like, Family Day invites us to cherish and nurture these relationships.

The family is the original cell of social life. It is the natural society in which husband and wife are called to give themselves in love and in the gift of life. Authority, stability, and a life of relationships within the family constitute the foundations for freedom, security, and fraternity within society. The family is the community in which, from childhood, one can learn moral values, begin to honor God, and make good use of freedom. Family life is an initiation into life in society. Celebrating Family Day: The Gift of Togetherness [CATECHISM OF THE CATHOLIC CHURCH 2207]

Family Day is a reminder that we are never alone. God places people in our lives—whether by birth or by choice—to support, encourage, and love us. This year, let's take time to honour and celebrate the people who make up our family, thanking God for the gift of relationships that bring joy, strength, and faith into our lives.

PROPER DISPOSAL OF OLD BLESSED PALMS

Whatever you do, don't throw them away!

According to the Code of Canon Law, blessed items are not to be discarded in a trash can, but treated with respect (cf. #1171). At Mass these palm branches were set apart by a blessing from the priest and made into a "sacramental," an object that is meant to draw us closer to the celebration of the seven sacraments. Throwing them in the trash ignores their sacred purpose and treats them like any other object we no longer need.

Burn or bury

Most sacramentals, like palm branches for example, can be burned or buried in order to properly dispose of them. This type of disposal honors their sacred purpose and returns them to the earth in a dignified way.

Please don't bring it to the church. We don't have a place to burn them. We already have enough ashes for everyone.
